

ZARA CONGRATULATES NEW PPP/C PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE DONALD RAMOTAR

Welcomes President Jagdeo and Ramotar to NY!!!

President of Zara Realty Holding Corp, Mr George Subraj extends a warm welcome to His Excellency President Bharrat Jagdeo and the PPP/C new Presidential Candidate Mr. Donald Ramotar to New York; and forthwith wishes the incumbent party resounding victory again at the National and Regional Elections of Guyana to be held later this year.

Late President Dr. Cheddi Jagan

"The PPP/C is still the best party for Guyana," said George Subraj. "They have achieved great success in the economic and social ladders of Guyana and Zara is proud to be associated with their work as they continue to rebuild the Co-operative Republic."

"President Jagdeo said on a recent visit here that Guyana was declared a land and a people that were without hope by the Caribbean Council of Churches in the eighties," said George "but in less than two decades all of this has changed.

"Today the national debt has been substantially reduced; the Housing sector has grown with the distribution of over 7000 house lots; the health and education ministries' have seen unprecedented success; and the Low Carbon Development Strategy (LCDS) program has been recognized as a blueprint for hemispheric protection.

"Guyana is going through exciting times also with the great potential for oil, gold and other precious metals find as major international companies completes exploratory phases of their work and sets the stage for actual drilling, etc. It all looks promising," said George who has over the years taken several medical missions to Guyana.

"Dr Cheddi Jagan's work as a visionary was second to none but in President Jagdeo he could not have identified a better successor. The phenomenal growth in the infrastructure and the investor-friendly environment which he created is as vibrant and glaring as a summer's day sunlight!

"Now with Mr. Ramotar we are about to get a new President whose knowledge and history of the party and country is unparalleled. No can dispute his longevity, his fight and his love for the people. Donald has demonstrated this time after time and Zara is proud to support him as the next candidate for the top job in Guyana," explains George who along with his brothers Vice-Presidents, Ken Subraj and Jay Sobhraj actively participates in health and education philanthropic projects in Guyana and the US.

Mr.Ramotar, an economist by training, received his primary education at Caria Caria Congregational School and the St. Andrew's Primary School. He later pursued studies at the Government Technical Institute (GTI) and went on to become a graduate of the Department of Economics, Faculty of Social Sciences of the University of Guyana.

He began his working career on his father's timber grant. Between 1966 and 1975 he worked at GIMPEX, the commercial arm of the PPP. In 1975, he was appointed Manager of Freedom House, a position that he held for eight years. From 1983 to 1988, he served as a member of the Editorial Council of the magazine 'Problems of Peace and Socialism' and as the International Secretary of the Guyana Agricultural Workers' Union (GAWU) between 1988 and 1993.

Having joined the PPP in 1967, he has been in the leadership of the party since 1979 when he was elected to the Central Committee.

He became a member of the Executive Committee of the PPP in 1983 and assumed the position of Executive Secretary of the party one year after the PPP was restored to office in 1992.

He became the General Secretary in March 1997 when Dr. Cheddi Jagan passed away, a position he holds today. Mr. Ramotar has had extensive experience within the party and has represented the party on numerous occasions overseas.

Finally, Zara pledges to support the PPP/C fully at the General Elections later this year and wishes continued success for the country under its new President Mr. Donald Ramotar.

Best of Luck: George wishes Mr. Ramotar success in the upcoming elections.
